Heart Of Steel

The emotions gone
And you think that's wrong
It's just the way I deal
With the World I am subjected to

I'm not looking for attention
That's far from my intention
I have faced my fears
And now there's nothing left for you

I had no father
A single mother
Yet the man inside stayed real

I lost a brother
An insane lover
And my heart become like steel

All my feelings gone
Some say that's wrong
It's the way I am
From all that I have seen

I'm not looking for attention
I'm just hiding my frustration
I have survived my fears
And now there's nothing left to do
