Lost At Sea

The water's cold
Chills me deep inside
Waiting
For your touch to rescue me

Time stands still
As I search the horizon
Trying
To keep my head above the waves

Someone grab my hand
I'm lost at sea
Alone and cold
Waiting for the waves to swallow me

Drenched in solitude
In my sea of pain
Pull me from the depths
Let me breathe again

The under tow
Pulls me further down
Gasping
Could this be my final breath?

No saving waves
To wash me upon the shore
Just an endless sea
I'll brace and let myself drown
