Misery's Slave

Daily life for you is such a bore
To crack a smile is an exertive chore
You tangle me in your web of lies
No emotion in your cold, cold eyes

Your misery's slave
It's a choice you make, it's not my mistake
Why do you believe?
It's all about you coz you know that's not true

Freedom's not a word or notion
As you lock yourself in your emotion
The wall goes up, your world falls down
What goes around, comes around
